WHAT HAPPENS AT NYLT?

During the first day of NYLT, participants are put into patrols with a staff member as their troop guide. Throughout the week, they will do activities together, learn together, and make lifelong friends.

Patrol Members play games that involves trust, teamwork, communication, and many other leadership skills. Throughout the course, participants learn why these skills are important as well as how to develop and maintain them.

Participants and staff members have fun singing songs at flags to start off a great morning. NYLT isn't just learning leadership, but also learning how to have fun! NYLT may be leadership training, but it's put on with a lot of fun activities and by an enthusiastic staff!

Each day the patrols will rotate responsibilities and will learn simple tasks like running a flag ceremony or making a presentation. They work as a group to make things happen and learn why it is important to bond as a team.
